COURT WARRIOR HONOR AWARDS

Tennis is a game where the result is not completely in your hands. Playing your best does not mean that you will always win. We know that focusing on positive behaviors that are in our control will help our athletes better handle the ups and downs of competition and improve both as players and as people. We believe these behaviors should be emphasized in every part of the tennis environment. Our Honor Band system recognizes players who are working at and displaying these behaviors. A different colored Honor Band is awarded monthly to select players. Bands are only awarded for exceptional behavior only so wear it with pride!

RESPECT - Supports others, focused, listens to coaches

TRAIN - Works hard, well prepared, independent

EXPLORE - Solves problems, creative, asks questions

COMPETE - Maximum effort, loves challenge, displays good sportsmanship
